

EXPLORING LONG-TERM SOLUTIONS TO ADDICTION

America is in the middle of a public health crisis. Many addictive behaviors are prompted by drugs, but they can also begin from alcohol, sugar, caffeine, or even exercise. Addictions can start with prescriptions or over-the-counter painkillers to legitimate ailments, like pulled teeth or a sporting injury. WLIW21 is committing a full week to coverage of the opioid crisis, its extensive reach, and what long-term solutions communities can employ to curb the treatable brain disorder.

Beginning Monday, October 15, MetroFocus will cover the opioid crisis in each daily broadcast (weeknights at 5pm, 7pm, and 11pm). From opioid addiction in veterans, to how and where those in recovery can find work, the program will dig deep into the epidemic, possible solutions and success stories.

NOVA: Addiction (Thursday, October 18 at 9pm) joins scientists and sufferers alike as they probe the mysteries of addiction: how addiction works, the science behind it, and how we should and should not address the issue. Viewers will discover that addiction is not just a lack of willpower, but chemical changes in the brain that are both hard to control and hard to reverse. “Nearly every family in America has been affected by addiction—the biggest public health crisis facing us today; yet it remains poorly understood, largely stigmatized, and finding treatment can be a daunting process,” said Paula S. Apsell, NOVA Senior Executive Producer.

In addition, Opioids from Inside (Sunday, October 21 at 12pm) follows the journeys of three women whose lives have been forever changed as a result of their addiction to opioids.

FORMIDABLE FELINES

Stalking in the shadows, prowling almost every continent, cats are among the world’s most diverse and successful predators. But there is far more to these charismatic and misunderstood animals than most people realize. Super Cats, A Nature Miniseries, uncovers the secret lives of big cats, revealing how they survive and thrive in all four corners of the globe—from the solitary bachelor snow leopard in the Himalayas, to the elusive swamp tiger of South Asia, and many more.

COURTESY OF JESS BARRATT FOR SID GENTILE FILMS & MASTERPIECE

Hailed by The Wall Street Journal as “an island of charm,” The Durrells in Corfu returns for a new season of eccentric family adventures on a Greek isle in the 1930s. In Poldark, it's 1796, and to defend Cornwall and those he loves from an empowered George, Ross must play the political game on a journey that takes him to the nation's capital and into new perils.
