The Brits of Summer

A n epic costume drama set on the cusp of 19th century India. A popular mystery series with a swoon-worthy vicar. Whether you’re tuning in, streaming, or binge-watching, the summer’s off to a sizzling, suspenseful start!

First, pack your bags for Beecham House (Mondays at 10pm beginning June 15). The lavish six-part Masterpiece miniseries transports viewers to a time before British rule in India, when the Mogul Empire was on its last legs and enormous fortunes were up for grabs. Tom Bateman, Lesley Nicol, Dakota Blue Richards, and Leo Suter star in the visually sumptuous series shot on location in India and hailed by the British press as “splendid” (The Telegraph) and “a feast for the eyes” (The Times).

The tale unfolds in 1795 as enigmatic Englishman and former East India Company soldier John Beecham arrives with deep pockets in Delhi. He has all the appearances of a rugged individualist, but he’s determined to reunite his family and even has an infant in tow — though he is hiding the baby’s identity. He can afford an opulent palace, but what will his secrets cost him and those he loves?

Also this month, there’s no shortage of thrills when Granchester (Mondays at 9pm beginning June 15) returns for a fifth season on Masterpiece, with crime-solving duo Reverend Will Davenport and Detective Inspector Geordie Keating. It’s 1957, and Will has settled into his role as the vicar of Granchester. His vow of celibacy is tested when he meets journalist Ellie Harding, and as always, he and Geordie are reminded once more that there’s darkness lurking in their little corner of Cambridgeshire.

As a WLIW21 member, you can binge-watch all six episodes of Granchester Season 5 the night of the premiere with WLIW21 Passport, our extensive, on-demand library of public television programming. Also available: Beecham House and all six seasons of Downton Abbey (expires June 30).

TRAILBLAZING WOMEN

American Masters spotlights two pioneering women as part of a summer-long celebration of the centennial of women’s suffrage.

Mae West: Dirty Blonde (Wednesday, June 17 at 9pm) dives into the life and career of the groundbreaking writer, performer and subversive star. Over a career spanning eight decades, she broke boundaries and possessed creative and economic powers unheard of for a female entertainer in the 1930s.

Toni Morrison leads an assembly of her peers and critics on an exploration of the powerful themes she confronted throughout her literary career in Toni Morrison: The Pieces I Am (Wednesday, June 24 at 9pm), an artful and intimate meditation that examines the life and work of the legendary storyteller. A Timothy Greenfield-Sanders film.

DONOR DISCOUNTS SPOTLIGHT

THANK YOU
Each program we put on air has the potential to inspire, educate and engage you. None of our extraordinary arts, public affairs or education programming would be possible without your support and commitment. Thank you for being part of our journey as we work remotely to offer programming on-air and online that has the potential to change lives. Stay safe and healthy. We’ll get through this together.
Join Frankie Valli, The Righteous Brothers, Connie Francis and more for a 2002 patriotic celebration of America and pop oldies music. Featuring a dream lineup of artists from the rock, pop and doo-wop days of the late 50s and early to mid-60s.
