Last year at this time, no one could have imagined what an exceptionally challenging year 2020 would be. As we begin the holiday season and welcome a brand new year, we wish you peace and good health, and hope you enjoy our bounty of holiday treats – from festive specials that celebrate the joys of the season to uplifting music programs and binge-worthy dramas.

Thank you for spending the holidays with WLIW21, and for being part of our family all year round.

Frontline explores the life of Jesus and depicts on the origins of Christianity using historical evidence in From Jesus to Christ: The First Christians (Wednesday, December 2 at 8pm), and relive the Christmas truce of 1914 between Allied and German soldiers in the docu-musical All is Calm: The Christmas Truce of 1914 (Thursday, December 24 at 9pm).

Lucy Worsley's 12 Days of Tudor Christmas (Monday, December 7 at 8pm) takes us on a 12-day extravaganza to discover that much of what we enjoy in contemporary Christmas – from carols to turkey, gift-giving to mistletoe and mulled wine – has surprising Tudor origins, rooted in devotion and charity.

Our gift to Call the Midwife fans: an all-new Call the Midwife Holiday Special (Saturday, December 26 at 8pm)! It's December 1965, and Christmas is anything but calm for the nurses and midwives of Nonnatus House. Sister Monica Joan is rushed to hospital, Trixie is irked by a holiday gift – a subscription to a Marriage Bureau – and the circus arrives in Poplar.

Wendy Moten, Dave Barnes, Jim Brickman, and Anita Cochran join host Victoria Shaw for an intimate evening of holiday classics and new favorites in Songwriters Under the Covers Holiday Special (Wednesday, December 2 at 8pm) on our ALL ARTS channel, watch online at allarts.org, or with the ALL ARTS app.

And we're ringing in the New Year laughing on Thursday, December 31 with specials spotlighting Betty White and Carol Burnett, and Mark Twain Prize for American Humor salutes to Dave Chappelle, David Letterman, and Julia Louis-Dreyfus.

AMERICAN MASTERS — LAURA INGALLS WILDER: PRAIRIE TO PAGE

The Little House book series by Laura Ingalls Wilder has been a favorite of children, teachers, and parents around the world for over 80 years. The author and her books have also inspired museums, libraries, a U.S. postage stamp, stage adaptations, historic highways, a LauraPalooza conference attended by fans and scholars, and a crater on Venus.

As Wilder fans celebrate the 85th anniversary of the publication of Little House on the Prairie, American Masters is pleased to premiere Laura Ingalls Wilder: Prairie to Page. The film explores the cultural legacy and complicated history of the unlikely author – a Midwestern farm woman who published her first novel at age 65 – and reveals how she transformed her early life into enduring legend, a process that involved a little-known collaboration with her daughter Rose.

PREMIERES THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31 AT 8PM
