WLIW21 commemorates Holocaust Remembrance Day (April 28) with a special line-up of documentary premieres featuring stories of resilience, survival, hope, and healing.

Return to Auschwitz: The Survival of Vladmir Munk (Wednesday, April 20 at 10pm) explores the life of Czech Holocaust survivor and retired U.S. professor Vladmir Munk. The film follows Munk in 2020, at age 95, as he returned to Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration and extermination camp, one of the camps where he was held prisoner during World War II. The trip was his last chance to honor 30 of his close relatives, including his parents, who were murdered there.

Follow the journey of Holocaust survivors in New York’s Hudson Valley as they collaborate with local songwriters to create and perform in a live concert of inspirational songs reflecting their Holocaust experiences in We Remember: Songs of Survivors (Wednesday, April 27 at 9pm). The resulting songs created during this unique six-month collaboration tell stories of unimaginable loss and incredible survival, and at the same time are filled with joy and healing, celebrating the extraordinary lives of this resilient generation and the power of the human spirit.

In the last store in a defunct shopping mall, 91-year-old Sonia Warshawski — great-grandmother, businesswoman, and Holocaust survivor — runs the tailor shop she has owned for more than 30 years. But when she is served an eviction notice, the specter of retirement prompts Sonia to resist her harrowing past as a refugee and witness to genocide. A poignant story of generational trauma and healing, Big Sonia (Wednesday, April 27 at 10pm) also offers a laugh-out-loud-funny portrait of the power of love to triumph over bigotry, and the power of truth-telling to heal us all.

We’re Expanding Our Reach!

Exciting news for fans of WLIW-FM, Long Island’s only NPR Station! WLIW-FM’s coverage now extends into Western Suffolk county, with The WNET Group acquisition of an FM translator located at 96.9 in Manorville, New York. “We are excited that more Long Islanders will now have access to WLIW-FM over the air on 96.9,” said Long Island native and resident Diane Masciale, Vice President & General Manager of WLIW21 and WLIW-FM. “We look forward to bringing our expanded audience the quality programming and conversations they expect from public media, while examining an even broader range of issues unique to the Long Island community.”
